

Delivering Effective In-Class Support

Are you looking for ways to ensure that the support learners receive in class maintains their interest and helps them to succeed? How confident are you that your teaching strategies support learners to develop their skills and progress in every session?

Explore teaching methods which will integrate and improve the quality of support that students receive in class.

Identify ways to actively involve learning support staff in lessons that will engage all learners.

Review and refresh your organisation's approach Additional Learning Support (ALS) to ensure that funding is maximised and support has an impact on success rates.

Suitable for: class teachers, advanced practitioners and leading teachers, Quality Managers, Additional Learning Support Managers,

Delivery method:

Training can be delivered on a one-to-one basis, to small groups or as a workshop

Outcomes:

By the end of this training you will:

- have identified a range of practical learning strategies to use in supporting students
- will know how to communicate with and manage learning support staff effectively in your classes
- have completed a health check of your organisation's Additional Learning Support strategy and be familiar ALS funding methodology

Cost: £500 + VAT per day - if you require more than one day, please contact us for a quotation.